

whose they were, James Mclorn is a Shoemaker I know the general character of prisoner, while in the army I was in ~~the~~ same Company & Regiment his character was good as a soldier & as a truthful man also as a peaceable man, while at home, & it was good for honesty,

I remember Pauline Foster meeting Dale one night near the road - I also remember her spending the night with him in the woods - I was along with them,

John Atkins, testified I went after Thomas Dale into Tennessee about a month after the disappearance of Laura Foster.
He said he had changed his name to Hall while in Watauga County, that he did it in fun.

Leol Isbell (Recalled by the State) testified I was at the grave of at the time of its discovery; my father in law was with me; it was made as follows, Pauline Foster was arrested, and while in jail gave substantially by the same statement which she has made here to day. In consequence of the disclosure made by her she was taken out of jail - we went with her to the ridge, came to the log, saw where dirt had been removed - this was the spot where she stated she stopped following
